On 1 September 1951, 100 to 120 troops arrived in the hutment near the Premnitz (M 53/2 04) railroad station. [REDACTED] 25X1C

25X1C [REDACTED] in the hutment. No training activity was noticed. Guard duty was performed by artillerymen with red-bordered black epaulets. Source believed that the number of troops in the installation fluctuated continuously. Local residents said that the troops never left their quarters. Only officers were noticed in the streets of Premnitz. [REDACTED]

25X1A * [REDACTED] Comment. The components of the 25th RL Brig of the IV Arty Corps, which are carried in Camp Premnitz, moved to Altengrabow in the middle of April 1951. A report of early July 1951 by another source indicates that the camp quartered a training unit of the brigade. See [REDACTED]. The present report confirms another source who stated that one train with troops of the brigade returned to Premnitz from Altengrabow on 26 August 1951. See [REDACTED] 25X1C

25X1C [REDACTED] the 25th RL Brig.
